

Club Panther Passion Special bulletin Saint Nectaire

Possible itinerary:

Monday June 3rd evening

Arriving in the evening at the hotel before 8pm. Aperitif and meal.

Tuesday June 4th: 40 to 80 km

Free time, visit of the towns of Saint Nectaire or Clermont Ferrand.

Wednesday June 5th: Cantal highlands to Sancy 197 km route n7.

We will not leave very late to get to the town of Condat where we will visit a cheese factory producing the Saint Nectaire AOC. We will of course taste the cheese. From here we will head south towards Mauriac. Then we will return to saint Nectaire via a different route. We will drive through Riom des montagnes, Capital of the Gentiane country. We will then travel further south to Mauriac one of the oldest cities of Cantal, then we will head towards Bort les orges one of the biggest dam in France. We will drive through La Bourboule on our way back to saint Nectaire.

Thursday June 6th: 150km

We will drive towards Thiers, cutlery capital, including a visit to the town and museum and maybe you will even have the opportunity to make your own knife. As it will be market day you will be able to buy a picnic if you wish.

Friday June 7th: Route of the lakes 140 km round. Route n9.

Saturday June 8th: Tour of Sancy 100km Route n10.

Visit of the volcano.

Sunday June 9th: The Cezaillier Plateaux 166 km Route n8

From Saint Nectaire we will drive towards Le rivalet then Champeix, Veyre monton, Vic le comte and follow a route to discover historical villages and bucolic scenery. (see description of route n8)

Monday June 10th:

Departure in the morning.
